

2019 WEBINAR SERIES

Engaging the Middle Manager in Safety to Achieve Well-Being

No matter the incentive, gadget or program, it's a person's supervisor who sets the tone for safety, productivity and wellness. Taking lessons from mature safety and management systems, we'll explore their application for creating sustainable well-being programs that measurably improve results. Engaged middle managers create the culture and environment that nurture high-performing, healthy employees.
